Curated by Leda Maria, a Brazilian artist herself, Show de Bola Miami edition is open to all of the art lovers and to those who want to dive in a colorful and vibrant world.

About the curator:

Leda Maria is a versatile visual artist who works in watercolors, oils, acrylics, mixed media, and encaustic. She also makes ceramics, sculptures and installations.

Influenced by Kandinsky and abstract expressionism, Leda Maria favors color field but also enjoys creating her figurative works. She is passionate about her art, using intellectual rigor and solid technique to create a genuinely original body of work.

Leda Maria was born in Brazil and holds degree in art history (MFA) at Fundação
Armando Alvares Penteado Faap - and fine art (BFA) at Integrated Colleges
Fatea- Teresa D'Avila. Art History at the Scuola Lorenzo de Medici in Florence - Italy, sculpture and printmaking at The Art Student League of New York.

She has been published in several magazines, newspapers, numerous art catalogs and art publications in Brazil as well as Europe and USA; she has also achieved various awards for her art.

About the show:

SHOW DE BOLA 2014

Cultural Area: Humanities

Segment: Visual arts

The "Show de Bola" project will be exhibited in Miami 2014 at Spectrum including originals on canvas and giclée prints created by a group of artists from different countries across five continents.

Each piece expresses its own history and rich culture promoting the rescue of cultural heritage. The displays are assembled in a unique manner to highlight common origins and peculiarities of the various communities involved and the individual stories of its residents.

The artists involved are passionate about shaping the culture and identity of the country they represent and this is evidenced by the traditional techniques of the fine arts present in each of the art works.
